M. OLLIVER'S ACCOUNT OF THE PALL OF NA-POLEON'S ROYALTY-PRUSSIAN INSULTS A DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST THE FRENCH-WHAT THE BONAPARTISTS SHOULD DO AS POLITICIANS, PARIS, June 11, 1875.

M. Otlivier's book in defence of the Ministry of Which he was the head on the breaking out of the Franco-Prussian war bas appeared.

It declares that Prussia, by her insults, really declared the war. His Ministry cannot be held responsible for entering upon the conflict, for the act was unanimously approved by the Senate and Legislative body. Nor is his Ministry responsible for the military organization, which was the work of years before it came into power.

M. Onivier claims for his Ministry that in a few months after its organization it had calmed the public mind and restored the authority of the government without employing either corruption or insimidation. He publishes a lotter from the Emperor, written a ter the fall of the Ministry, expressing continued confidence.

THE BEST ADVICE UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES. In conclusion M. Oilivier arges the Bonapartists to help the present government, maintain peace and respect the constitution, and when the opportunity comes for revising the constitution then claim an appeal to the phibiscite.

PRESENTATION OF A FLACE

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 11, 1875. Governor Chamberlain has obtained for presentation to the Washington Light Infantry, who start to-morrow for Bunker Hill, an elegant flag, designed after that under which the victory of Fort Mouitrie was won in 1776. in his letter requesting Hon. W. D. Porter to make the presentation in his name the Governor says:-"I wish that the flag may be received by the Washington Light infantry as a proof of my personal and official interest in this organization, and especially in the purposes and seelings which inspire their present visit to Massachusetts. I wish that its presence at Bunker Hill may signfly the sincere voueration in which the people of South Carolina hold all who bore a part in founding the American nation. I wish that it may call to mind, wherever it may be reen, the early patriottsm which gave to America and the world the examples and memories of Eutaw and Bunker Hill, of Lexington and King's Mountain and the patriotism which gave to America and the works the examples and memories of Eutaw and Bunker Hill, of Loxington and King's Mountain and the hundred other battle delds where South Carolina and Massachusetts, the North and the South mingled their best blood. If thus early patriotism, if those costly sacrifices are to have full fruition, if will be when the North and the South shall again be united by the indissolutio bond of their love of country. If the recent bitter estrangements are to be succeeded by the sweet rewards of peace it will be when, by the common edorts of the North and the South a free and mat national government shall command the love and honor of all sections and Mattes. To nasten such results in the function of those memorial observances in which the Washington Light Industry and this day of South Carolina will bear a significant and anoncrable part.

I beg you to intrust this flag to the Keeping of your comrades of the Washington Light Industry, with such expressious of patriotic sympathy as the occasion may suggest. May Heaven prosper and protect them while absent, and may the Bunker Hill of to-day by to them and to us bit a spot sacred from henceforth to national peace and fraternity.

Mr. Porter, in his reply, expresses a cordial concurrence in the sentiments of Governor Chamberlain, and adds:—"It seems to me as it there was something Providential in the occurrence of these centennial calebrations so soon after our recent estrangement. THE TREASURES OF THE DEEP. AN INCIDENT OF THE WAR REVIVED THE IRON SAFE OF THE CUMBERLAND RECOVERED WITH that the said contains between $50,000 and $100,000 have in gold.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD. Korpolk, Va., June 11, 1875. Captain Brown, of the schooner J. C., arrived here to-day in charge of an iron safe of the United States man-of-war Cumberland, which was run into and sunk in Hampton Roads by the Confederate ram Virginia, in 1862. Divers had been as work on the wreck ten years, having in view the work on the wreck forty-eight hours when he found the safe buried in three or four jeet of mad. The water at that piace is seventy-eight feet deep. By the explosion of a torpedo the safe was cracked, and, as it was hoisted on deck, a few pieces of gold onin dropped out. It is generally believed that the safe contains between $90,000 and $100,000 in gold.

It is estimated that more than $100,000 have been lost by different parties in trying to recover this treasure. The saie and treasure belong to Captain Brown and O. E. Maitby, of this city, and Herbert Smith, of Detroit, Mich.

A PETRIFIED BODY.

While Captain Brown was searching the wreck he came across a perrifed human body, in a perfect state of preservation. It was unburt by crabs or fish and the desh was extremely hard. The Captain supposes the body to be that of an officer, and he intends to return and got it.

Mrs. Jarrett was quite alone, she having sent her onlideren away to visit some friends.

A negro, who was arrested to night, is suspected of the oright.

WASHINGTON.

GENERAL WASHINGTON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, June 11, 1875. CHANGE IN THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE-CONDITION OF THE ORDER.

The bendquarters of the National Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry, which, ever since the Washington, will probably be removed to Louisville, Ky., in a short time. At the last annual session of the National Grange in Charleston, S. C., in February last, the Executive Committee was harged with the selection of a new point for the headquarters, to be located in one of the five Western States named, and the change was to be made within six months from the 1st of March last. The committee, it is understood, have, due investigation, selected Louisville as the most eligible location, although it was expected that St. Louis would be chosen. Kentucky stands No. 5 as regards the number of granges, having 1,559. Indiana heads the list, with 2,027 granges; Missouri has 2,026; lowa, 2,064; Illinois, 1,584. The total number of granges in the United States is 22,500, with an estimated aggregate membership of 1,500,000, official history of the Order, just published by the Secretary, shows that the total receipts from 1858 to 1871 inclusive were less than $5,000, while the receipts last year were $216,381. The Order at present has $59,000 invested in government onds and $19,000 in each on deposit at the financial agency in New York.

CLAYLIN INDICTMENTS. District Attorney Bliss, of New York, was at the freasury Department for more than four bours to-day on business connected with his office, including the Claffin and other important cases. He had conversations with Secretary Bristow and Attorney General Plerrepont concerning his action in the premises, relating to them many things which he would not trust to writing. The Attorney General incidentally called his attention to the complaint made against him by Walter M. Gibson, to the effect that District Attorney Bliss had prevented the Grand Jury from indicting a New York Post Office official on the allegation of stealing newspapers. Colonel Bliss made no explanation further than to refer the Attorney General to his old answer to a similar complaint made to Attorney General Williams, who dismissed it. Attorney General Pierrepont informed Colonet Bliss he would follow the course of his immediate predecessor, without further censideration of Gibson's complaint.

THE SUPPLIES FOR THE INDIANS AT KIOWA AND COMANCHE AGENCY-LETTER FROM A QUARER AGENT.

WASHINGTON, June 11, 1875. In reply to the statement made by Colonel Hatch at Fort Sill as to the supplies for the Indians at that agency and the indorsement of General Pope that it was idle to expect the indians to remain on the reservation with the prospect of starvacion, and the military would not be held accountable for any outbreak, J. M. Haworth, one of the Quaker agents for the Indian Territory, has written a letter to Friend Enoch Hong, Superintendent of Indian Affairs at Lawrence, Kan. It is dated Klowa and Comanche Agency, May 31. The writer says:-

Comanche Agency, May 31. The writer says:—
Among other things during the past winter my people have suffered only for flour and sugar, as I have been able to give toem beel, bacen coffee and tobacco. The beel has been given them much in excess of regular rations, such a course being necessary to prevent actual suffering. They have suffered for flour. They cannot subsist on any other kind of meat so well as buffelo, and their cultivated taste for and habit of cating other articles of the white man's diet has made such an inroad upon their natures that they would not be satisfied to throw away everything else and subsist alone upon buffalo very long. I believe the cattle we have received and issued as a general thing have been very fair beef, as good on an average as the country would afford, taking the number into consideration. The

WANT OF FLOUR AND SUGAR
is owing entirely to the freight contractor failing to do his duty. The large increase of supplies necessary for the increase of the military on account of the indian troubles required a very large nament of transportation. The same contractor having both contracts may have sad a larger matter than he was prepared to handle. Notwithstanding the absence of a part of the ration in kind, and a great deal of talk to the Indians calouiated to unsettle them and cause a feeling of dispatisfaction to arise among them, I see warranted in saying that they have manifested a feeling of appreciation of the circumstances, and complained much less than white people would have done under more invorable circumstances, and in no single instance do I call to mind any manifested or those associated with me. to mind any mantiestation of bad feeling on their part toward myself or those associated with me,

The following declaration of principles was submitted to the Convention:—

The republican party of California, in State Convention assembled, makes the following additional declaration of principles, readificing the state platform of 1871 and the national platform of 1872.— Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the wisdom, patriotism and integrity of the present Chief Magistrate of the United states, Clyssés S, Grant, and join our political brethren throughout the Union in the cordial and carness support of his administration, in the fullest recognition of his illustrous career in the military and civil service, and in condemnation of that rancorous party spirit which prompts his and our obsenses to as unconsidered and unjust attacks on him
as those to which his great predecessors, Washington, Jackson and Lincoin, were subjected during their administrations.
Resolved, That the lotter addressed by the President onemies to as unconsidered and unjust attacks on him as those to which his great predecessors, Washington, Jackson and Liucoin, were subjected during their administrations.

Resolved, That the lotter addressed by the President to the Chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican State Convention upon the subject of his succession is a tail relutation of the standers of those who charged him with intrigoing for re-election; that we accept it as explicit to a final sittlement of the third term agitation created by our enemies soiely to arouse jealousies and dissensions in the republican party.

Resolved, That the thirteenth, fourteenth and affecenth ameniments to the constitution of the United States, added to that instrument by the voices of the requisite three-fourths of the States of the Union, as republican three-fourths of the States of the Union, as republican added to that instrument by the voices of the requisite three-fourths of the States of the Union, as republican activents, notwithstanding the opposition, secret or avowed, of the democratic party or hostile White Leagues in the southern States.

Resolved, That the conduct of that portion of the people in the south who fely the fifteenth ameniment and seek, by intumidation or force, to prevent the law, the exercise of the elective franchise by the great bedy of colored cilizens, resident therein, is a rebellious defiance of the national authority, and an attempt to prevent the election of the rest presents by the people, calculated to arouse the worst passions of men, and to disturb the peace of the nation, and should be met with by all law-abiding oilizens. JAMES H. COCROPT.

Yesterday morning the body of James H. Co croft, son of Mr. Cocroft, superintendent of the government fortification works at Clifton, was picked up on the South Beach, near Fort Wadsworth. It appears that the young man left his father's house on Saturday night last, and that fainer's house on Saturday night last, and that was the last seen of him by his relatives until he was found dead. The probability is that he met his death by falling from a saliboat or from some of the decks along the shore. The decessed was thirty-one years old, was a good mechanic and practical architect and a graduate of West Point, Dr. Tracy Stapleten held au inquest and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts so far as known. The body was buried in the Moraylan churchyaid at New Dorp.

S. AUGUSTUS MILLS.

S. Augustus Mills, a well known and very popular stock broker, died at his residence, at No. 111 East Thirty-fourth street, after a very brief liness. He was a son of Pavid S. Mills, an old Long Istander, and was born in New York in July, 1830. Up to the year 1804 he was paying teller in the mannam Bank, and since that time man were well known "on the firee." In the year 1870 he was a member of the Governing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange. Funeral services will take place at his late residence to-morrow alteracon at three o'clock, and the interment will take place the following day.

AMUSEMENTS.

TERRACE GABDEN THEATEN. The final farewell performance of the most successful of the opera bouffe repertoire, Lecocy's sparking "Girofle-Girofle," took place last night at Terrace Garden before a large audience. Mile. Geoffroy sustained the dual title role with her accustomed chic and clan, and the tenor, De Quercy, was as ferocious a Moor as over. Miss Lina Wass man commences a summer season of light comedy and comic opera on Friday next. The lady has the advantage of talent and experience in the ardnous enterprise which she undertakes. Mr. Herman Grau is the business director.

GILMORE'S SUMMER GARDEN.

Mr. P. S. Gilmore and his unrivalled military band essayed a rather ambitious programme last night before an immense andience, and succeeded in giving a very expressive and artistic rendering of two overtures by Weber and Suppe, a fantasta on "il Profeta," the best of all Weyprecht's arrangements; one of Meyerbeer's Torchlight Dances, a couple of waitzes, a solo by Arbuckle, beautifully rendered and well accompanied, and a selection from "H Crociato." Mr. Gimore has a pardonable leaning toward Meyerbeer in his performances, for never has an operatic writer existed that could produce such genine musical effects like the Franco-German composer. The new eascade is now in thorough working order and is an attraction in itself.

tre to-night. Albani has made a grand specess in London this season, especially as Eisa, in "Lohengrin." Downing's Band is again in the field for a military display at Jones' Wood Colosseum on Sunday

Mr. Max Strakosch will present the great dramatic prima donna, Mile. Tietjena, in concert, oratorios and opera in this city next fall.

A.—BLOOD DISKASES.

The blood being the source from which our systems are built up and from which we derive our mental as well as physical canonidities, how important that it should be kept pure. If it contains vite fessering poisons all organic functions are weakened thereby. Settling upon important organs, as the imaga, liver or kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behooves every one to keep their blood in a perfectly healthy condition, and more especially does this apply at this particular acason of the year than at any other. No matter what the exciting cause may be, the real cause of a large proportion of all diseases is bad blood. Now, Dr. Pierce does not wish to place his Goldes Madrida. Discovery in the catalogue of ducak patent hostrums by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it. On the contrary there are hundreds of diseases that he acknowledges it will not cure; but what he does claim is this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure in the what he does not recommend his discovery for that disease, that it will not cure the blood and system of all other known blood poisons, be they animal, vegetable or mineral. The does not recommend his discovered and that it will free the blood and system of all other known blood poisons, be they animal, vegetable or mineral. or will prove the most interesting portions of the work."

From the New York Times.

'These memoirs are by far the most interesting and important contribution yet made to the military history of the receilion by any of the leading advors in the great struggle. The personal history of so marked a man must always possess extraordinary interest. When it is related by the man himself, and in that peculiarly racy style which General Sherman's letters and speeches have made familiar to the public, it not only becomes absorbing, but leastnating.

From the Evening Post.

'Uneral Sherman has told his story with the most entire unreserve, and the story is one which Amoricans will be prond to read. We cannot help a feeling of satisfaction in being of the same race and the same country with such a man. We have here the nicture of a person resolute yet cauthous, bold yet printent confident yet modest, a man of action to his hinger-ends, yet withal something of a poet: we see all through the book the evidences of a citivarious mind and of an intellect of singular force and previous flat Broomway, New York.

closes the secret charm or his great novel, "A Princess of Thoise."

James Parton's "Carlestore in the Revolutionary Pervol," opening with an illustration destined by Healemin Francis, in Landon, 1774, has a centennial flavor, and a peculiarity apropos to the coming Fourth of July. Dr. Sauncel Oagood, who is a Charlestown man, commandrates the centennial of nuncer Hill in sphilosophic review of the significant issues of that buttle.

8. G. W. Reniamin, whose article on the Channel Liangle delighted the residers of the Jane Number, in his "Wanderings in Brittany," condenses a volume of interesting matter into 20 pages of this number, accombanied by 31 engavings, which for beauty have never been surpassed in any illustrated periodical. Charles Rau continues his illustrated pepers on the Stone Age in Europe. There is an illustrated, humoroug love story by virging W. Johnson, "A Prince of cobweb," and poems by T. B. Addrich and other popular whiters.

MORFORD'S AMERICAN GUIDS. Short Trip Guide to America. By Henry Marford, Edition of 1873. Revised and Entarged. 16mo. Hound in cloth, blue and gold. $1.

It is a charming story, fail of refinement, with a highly attractive plot, and is translated in Mrs. Wister's pure and period style.

This story possesses in tuli measure those unmistak able characteristics of genius which have made official frame famous wherever the best works of English fid-lion are read. It has all the intensity of feeling, all the luxuriance of language and all the brilliant imagery of her earlier works. It sparates with wise and witty say.
